

Weather and Other Emergency Closings

Approved May 17, 2017

The Daniel Pierce Library follows the weather closings of the Tri-Valley Central School District. If school is not in session, the decision to close because of weather or other emergency conditions will be made by the Director. News of closings will be made available by radio, posted on the Library's website, social media sites and by telephone calls.